New Town Hall Building

The Town of Burgaw dedicated their new Town Hall building on May 2, 1965. Mayor Baker accepted the key from the architect, Julian A. Altobellis and the Town Clerk and Tax Collector, Grace Ferrell, had the honors of cutting the ribbon. The Volunteer Fire Department had two fire engines and a water tank truck on display for the event.

The building that was built in 1965 has been remodeled over the years and has grown as the Town has grown to better accommodate the needs of the citizens.
